ABOUT: Incorporated in 1992 by Mr. Digvijay Dhabriya (Chairperson & Managing Director), Company has carved its name as reputed and product innovation led player in manufacturing and fabrication of PVC profiles, uPVC windows & doors as well as Modular Furniture products via its manufacturing facilities located in Jaipur and Bangalore serving to strong clientele along with extensive network of 800+ dealers/distributors PAN India.

INVESTMENT RATIONALE:

Durable, sustainable and versatile products to meet increasing real estate demand from urbanization

- ➤ Easy to install products with quicker turnaround time ensures real estate developers compliance with RERA timelines thereby increasing preference towards Company's products
- ➤ Capability to produce multiple SKUs (different thickness, colors) in small to big batch sizes provides flexibility to developers to meet changing needs of urban population

Premium looking products at lower cost compared to wood / marble provides a suitable alternative

> PVC Marble sheets, laminates under D-Stona brand transforms interiors to luxury look

Established market position with diversified customer base & products

- ➤ Promoter has been in business for over 25 years with strong understanding of market dynamics and healthy relationships with customers and suppliers
- ➤ Order book of ~INR 135 Cr.+ (Sep'24) for uPVC and modular furniture with regular deliveries to marquee clients such as M3M, DLF etc. provides product offtake and revenue receipts visibility
- ➤ PAN India presence with ~800+ dealers/distributors further strengthens position in extruded PVC profile
- > Brand recognition and retail sales in modular furniture to increase from opening of Studio Arezzo

Existing capacity has potential to achieve ~1.75x (FY24) revenues without any major capex

RATING RATIONALE:

Basis 1-Yr forward (FY26) PAT of ~INR 24 Cr. and PE multiple of 24x, we have arrived at target price though average EPS growth rate of ~27% Y-o-Y for future years indicates further potential upside.

BUSINESS:

> Company receives revenue from three business segments (a) PVC profiles (b) uPVC windows & doors and (c) modular furniture with business carried out at standalone entity along with different subsidiaries as follows:

Polywood Profiles Pvt. Ltd. (PPPL) incorporated in 2005 engaged in manufacturing of uPVC profiles & PVC profile (Rev. & PAT of INR 71 Cr. & INR 8 Cr. in FY24)

Dynasty Modular Furnitures Pvt. Ltd. (DMFPL) incorporated in 1995 engaged in manufacturing of modular kitchen, wardrobes, furniture applications etc. (Rev. & PAT of INR 34 Cr. & INR 1 Cr. in FY24)

Polywood Green Building Systems Pvt. Ltd. (PGBSPL) incorporated in 2012 engaged in trading & wholesale of uPVC products, extruded PVC profiles, modular furniture (Rev. & PAT of INR 2 Cr. & INR 0.02 Cr. in FY24)

> Segment wise revenue bifurcation along with brief product profile:

INR Cr. [% of operating revenue]	FY22	FY23	FY24	H1-FY25 (A)
PVC Profiles	90 [67%]	111 [65%]	123 [58%]	67 [57%]
uPVC Windows, doors	32 [24%]	39 [23%]	55 [26%]	29 [25%]
Modular Furniture	12 [9%]	21 [12%]	34 [16%]	21 [18%]

EBITDA (INR Cr.)	14	18	31	18
EBITDA %	10.3%	10.8%	14.7%	15.8%

Note: Improvement in EBITDA margins driven by (a) change in product mix (b) operational efficiencies through backward integration (c) drop in raw material prices

➤ Key USPs: (a) Customization: Company offers products in 2000 colors in shapes and sizes as per requirement vs imports which are of standard sizes. Thus Co. ensures there is zero wastage (b) Product Quality: High quality standards with product guarantee ranging from 5 years to 10 years (c) Competitive pricing as compared to imports from China (only 5% to 10% higher depending on weight) (d) Large sales team catering to entire value chain of end customers (i.e. from architects to interior designers to builders and developers). Further opening of Studio Arezzo, Co. plans to increase share of retail sales of modular furniture which is a high growth segment

> Company serves its customers wide 800+ dealers/distributors while Kaka Industries has network of ~300+ dealers. With industry uptick, consolidation of market towards organized players and Company's track record and established market position, growth prospects for Company remain healthy.

KEY RISKS:

➤ Intensive working capital nature of operations (past NWC days of 160+); though efficient working capital management has reduced the working capital cycle

Particulars [days]	FY21 (A)	FY22 (A)	FY23 (A)	FY24 (A)	H1-FY25
Inventory	124	122	105	86	81
Trade Receivables	82	61	46	41	45
Trade Payables	17	21	18	22	20
NWC	189	162	133	106	106

- > Susceptibility to raw material prices (uPVC powder, PVC resin, additives, stabilizers etc.). Further certain raw material such as uPVC door handles & locks, PVC and modular furniture sub-items are imported. Given Company's presence in industry for over 25 years mitigates raw material availability and pricing risk
- > Downturn in real estate market (new, repair & renovation) which is primary end use of Company's products can be key risk. However, real estate demand from urbanization and Company's clients being large developers minimizes such risk

Notes:

- a. Management has guided for 25% Y-o-Y revenue growth rate post H1-FY25 financial results con-call. Our assumptions are on conservative basis considering risks from domestic players as well as imports. For FY25 since there was delayed impact of monsoons in Delhi NCR, FY25 growth has been considered at 20% Y-o-Y
- b. Management has guided for sustaining margins and despite improvement in H1-FY25, our base case is on conservative side to account for reversal in raw material prices which have seen correction in 2022 post spike in 2021.
